

Ontario Chapter News – October 2007

- We are searching for an additional GIS Inspector - the principal requirements include the following:
 - ❖ Must be knowledgeable of building construction in general and architectural woodwork in particular
 - ❖ Must be familiar with plans, specifications, and shop drawings
 - ❖ Must understand and be able to interpret the AWMAC Quality Standards, latest edition
 - ❖ Must be able to produce a concise, comprehensive and well-organized report
 - ❖ Must own a computer with Internet and E-Mail capabilities and be competent in the use of word-processing software
 - ❖ Must be physically able to perform jobsite inspections
 - ❖ Must be available to perform inspections in a timely manner
 - ❖ Must be impartial and not in conflict with the work being inspected
- Interested persons should forward resumes to Mary Thorburn, Secretary/Manager. Only suitable candidates will be contacted
- Visit the website - www.awmaontario.com for an up-to-date list of members and other industry-related information
- Members are eligible to post company events on the website - visit www.awmaontario.com for further information
- Members are eligible to purchase golf shirts and hygrometers - visit www.awmaontario.com for further information
- Al Sparling of Conestoga College is representing AWMAC on the Joint Standards Committee
- Membership continues to grow and the Chapter is pleased to announce that Prime Estimating and Woodlogix have recently been accepted as members
- The National Guarantee and Inspection Service Committee will hold their annual meeting in Toronto on October 19-20, 2007
- AWMAC's National Board will meet in Toronto during the WMS Show - October 26-28, 2007 at the Toronto International Centre - please feel free to drop by the booth during the show. AWMAC's National Board, together with the Chapter, will host a cocktail reception on Friday evening for industry associates and members
- The Chapter is hosting the Second Annual Awards Banquet on Saturday, November 17, 2007 at The Old Mill in Toronto - visit www.awmaontario.com for complete details - sponsorship opportunities still available
- The 2008 AWMAC National Convention will be held in June 2008 in Halifax - further details will follow
- The Guarantee and Inspection Service Program (GIS) is steadily growing and continues to be specified by architects
- Currently, there are three inspectors dedicated to the Program
- Presently, there are 49 projects in progress and 38 projects being tracked. The numbers do not include completed projects, only projects currently undergoing an inspection service

Please contact Mary Thorburn, AWMAC Secretary, at 416-499-4000, ext. 14 for further information