

Ontario Chapter News – August 2008

- We are searching for an additional part-time GIS Inspector
 - the principal requirements include the following:
 - ❖ Must be knowledgeable of building construction in general and architectural woodwork in particular
 - ❖ Must be familiar with plans, specifications, and shop drawings
 - ❖ Must understand and be able to interpret the AWMAC Quality Standards, latest edition
 - ❖ Must be able to produce a concise, comprehensive and well-organized report
 - ❖ Must own a computer with Internet and E-Mail capabilities and be competent in the use of word-processing software
 - ❖ Must be physically able to perform jobsite inspections
 - ❖ Must be available to perform inspections in a timely manner
 - ❖ Must be impartial and not in conflict with the work being inspected
 - ❖ Interested persons should forward resumes to Mary Thorburn, Secretary/Manager. Only suitable candidates will be contacted
- Visit the website - www.awmacontario.com for an up-to-date list of members and other industry-related information
- Members are eligible to post company events on the website - visit www.awmacontario.com for further information
- Manual Update - in the near future, the 8th edition QSI will be replaced by a new woodwork standard to unify north America, Issue 1 - distribution in early 2009 - further details to follow as they become available
- The Chapter will be hosting a 'Holiday Celebration' (dinner/dance) on Saturday, November 22, 2008 at The Old Mill Inn - complete details to follow shortly
- The Awards Night will be held in February 2009 (date TBA) at a downtown venue. Stay tuned for further details
- The Chapter has signed on again to participate at the CSC Toronto Chapter Table Top Trade Show, scheduled to take place Monday, March 2, 2009 at the Metro Toronto Convention Centre
- The Guarantee and Inspection Service Program (GIS) is steadily growing and continues to be specified by architects
- Currently, there are two inspectors dedicated to the Program
- Presently, there are 48 projects in progress and being tracked. The numbers do not include completed projects - only projects currently undergoing an inspection service
- The GIS office is pleased to announce that Daniela Mabardi-Saker has been hired to assist Janice with the day-to-day operation
- The GIS office is looking for framed photographs of your projects for display in the office - contact Mary for further information
- The GIS office will hold an Open House on Wednesday, September 10 - 4-6 pm - join us for cake and refreshments

Please contact Mary Thorburn, AWMAC Secretary, at 416-499-4000, ext. 114 for further information